God's Workshop

by Max Lucado

I remember knowing kids whose fathers were quite successful. One was a judge. The other a prominent physician. I attended church with the son of the mayor. "My father has an office at the courthouse," he could claim. Guess what you can claim? "My Father rules the universe!"

Scripture says, "The heavens declare the glory of God and the skies announce what his hands have made." (Psalms 19:1) Nature is God's workshop. The sky is his resume. You want to know who God is? See what he has done. You want to know his power? Take a look at his creation.

How vital that we pray, armed with the knowledge that God is in heaven. Pray with any lesser conviction and your prayers are timid, shallow, and hollow. But spend some time walking in the workshop of the heavens. Seeing what God has done—seeing what your Father has done and watch how your prayers are energized!
